CHEERS FOR VICTOR

New York, Oct. 5.—In answer to a suggestion by the Boston Journal that the Shamrock and Columbia engage in a race, the Columbia crew to handle the Shamrock and the Shamrock crew the Columbia. Sir Thomas Lipton this morning said he would gladly agree if the other side was willing.

LIPTON CHEERS THE VICTOR

He Declares the Columbia Was the Better Boat and Praises Her

New York, Oct. 5.—The feeling on Erin was tense during the yacht race, and everybody was keyed up to a high pitch as the boats rushed to the finish mark. The situation was too uncertain and exciting for anybody to talk. After the finish a small boat steamed past Erin and announced that Columbia had Erin passed Columbia under tow shortly after the finish, and the defeated boat's owner proposed three cheers for Columbia, leading the cheering by waving his cap. The victorious crew lined upon the twice successful defender and, led by Captain Barr, returned the cheers with great vigor.

Morgan and Barr Talk.
E. D. Morgan, the manager of Columbia, said: "I am happy that we won and glad the strain is over. We certainly had to make a splendid fight for it. We had a splendid captain and a splendid crew."
Captain Barr said: "We did the best we could and they did the best they could, and we came out first. That's all."

FRESHMEN WIN THE ANNUAL RUSH

High Old Times Among the Students at the State University at Madison Last Night.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 5.—The freshmen came out victorious in the annual class rush with the sophomores at Wisconsin University yesterday afternoon, ducked the most of the upper class men in the lake, and then hauled down the 1904 flag which the sophs had floated from the flagstaff on the gymnasium. Over 100 students on both sides of the fray were immersed in the chilly waters of the lake during the melee, but the majority of them were sophs.

The lake is shallow for some distance from the shore near the gymnasium and there were no accidents beyond a few bruised bodies and torn clothes. The fun was all good-natured and there was no interference with the sport by either the police or faculty.

This was the first day of freshman drill in the gymnasium, and is always picked by the sophs as the occasion for the class rush.

TAMMANY NAMES SHEPARD.

Brooklyn Man Nominated for Mayor at Last Night's Convention.

New York, Oct. 5.—Edward M. Shepard of Brooklyn, was nominated for mayor by the Tammany convention, amid scenes of wild confusion. There was only one name on the lips of the persans in the gallery, in the side aisles, and in the rear of the hall. That name was Coler. They howled his name until even the playing of a bass band, the binging of the chairman's gavel, the stentorian voice of the clerk of the convention and the protests of hundreds of delegates were drowned. Croker's machine was in the saddle, however, and never for a moment was there any danger of a stampede. The convention proceeded with its work deliberately, despite the uproar, and nominated the scheduled ticket. In addition to the nomination for mayor William W. Ladd, Jr., was named for comptroller and George M. Van Hoesen for president of the board of aldermen.

FOR A NEW LABOR PARTY.

Call Issued for Workmen's Convention at Patterson, N. J.

New York, Oct. 5.—At the meeting of the executive board of the United Silk Workers at Patterson, N. J., the question of initiating a movement for an independent labor party was considered. After a long debate it was decided to issue a call for a workmen's convention Monday night in that city. The four organizations represented on the executive board—the United Broad Silk Weavers, the Horizontal Wavers, the United Ribbon Weavers and the Loom Fixers and Twisters—each will send a delegation of twenty-five to the convention and every trade organization in the city is invited to send the same number. It was decided to secure the services of "Mother" Jones, the Pennsylvania organizer, to help in the organization of trade unions.

PETITION FOR CZOLGOSZ.

Despite Odell's Statement Commutation of Sentence is Asked.

Boston, Oct. 5.—Although Governor Odell of New York has said emphatically that he will not consider any petition for a commutation of Czolgosz's sentence to life imprisonment, the Social Alliance of this city is circulating a petition for signatures. The paper is a long one and includes this sentence: "The motive of the petition is no sentimental sympathy with a condemned man, much less the upholding of any form of anarchy, of which he is said to have been a disciple, but the belief that the ends of justice, the vindication of the law and the higher interests of civilization will be served better by this change in the form of the penalty."

ROOSEVELT AND SPOONER CONFER; WEST HOSTILE TO SHIP SUBSIDIES

President Seeking Information Before Preparing His Message to Congress, Calls on Republican Leaders for Opinions on Public Questions.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—President Roosevelt has invited a number of the republican leaders in congress to come to Washington for conference with him before he prepares his message. Last night he had Senator Spooner of Wisconsin with him at dinner, and the senator remained at the White House until the hour for him to take the midnight train for New York. What particular subjects were under discussion only the president and Senator Spooner know, but the presumption is that they went over the whole field pretty generally because of Spooner's intimate acquaintance with the policies of McKinley's administration and also because of his position in the senate. Senator Spooner, it is well known, does not favor subsidies. He told President Roosevelt that the West is opposed to that method of building up the merchant marine, and that if the republican party passes a subsidy bill it will lose the next house of representatives and enter the presidential campaign of 1904 considerably embarrassed.

While at the capitol Senator Spooner declined to discuss issues in detail. He expressed his confidence in President Roosevelt, and said he had no doubt the president and congress would work to gether in harmony as they had during the McKinley administration.

The senator admitted that some questions are forcing to the front now in a way to compel the republicans to make a definite position. This was true particularly of reciprocity. The party had taken its position in favor of reciprocity, and must now work out this matter in detail. Senator Spooner would not predict what would be done, but he believed congress would in some way, carry out the reciprocity pledges of the party and the president.

Senators Allison and Platt and Foraker, in fact all the republican leaders in congress, have been invited to visit the White House for plain talks over the situation. The president desires to have the advice of all the republican leaders in congress, and he is showing them that he expects to confer with them freely before he takes any steps in outlining a policy for his administration.

GENERAL TRADE IS VERY ACTIVE; PROGRESS IN NEARLY ALL LINES

All the Mills Crowded with Orders, Railroads Are Showing Increased Earnings—Jobbers Have a Rush.

New York, Oct. 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today says:
"Trade channels are remarkably free from obstruction, although the movement of goods at some points is checked by insufficient transporting facilities. This is a tribute to the unusually heavy shipments which are shown more definitely by railway earnings in September, 9.2 per cent. larger than last year and 16.7 per cent. above those of 1899."
"Manufacturing is of such vigor that few wheels are idle, and further wage agreements have reduced the number of strikers to a minimum. Mild weather, yacht races, and other temporary influences curtailed the volume of retail sales in this vicinity, but jobbing and wholesale concerns are preparing for exceptional transactions. Foreign trade is also heavy."
"Nothing new has developed in regard to the iron and steel question, and with the mills crowded in their efforts to overtake consumptive demand there is little prospect of any material change in the market for some little time."

GOV. LA FOLLETTE IS SOME BETTER

It Is Not Known Whether He Intends to Go to French Lick Springs for His Health.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 5.—Lieutenant Governor Jesse Stone was here today and called at the executive and other departments. He had a talk with Colonel Jere Murphy as to the governor's condition and was told that Mr. La Follette was better the past week than he had been for two months.

The colonel said the governor ought to go somewhere for his health as soon as he was able to travel. He didn't say, however, that the governor would leave the state. He said that the governor was still quite weak. From his conversation with Colonel Murphy the lieutenant governor seemed to think that it was hardly probable that the governor would go to French Lick Springs, as some of his friends want him to, and that he, (the lieutenant governor) would be called on to assume the executive chair.

Mrs. R. M. LaFollette has denied the report circulated here to the effect that she would discontinue her work with the Emily Bishop League, of which she was one of the founders. She is an enthusiastic advocate of hygienic exercises for women, and greatly enjoys her work of instructing the Emily Bishop league.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

PRIEST CHARGED WITH AN ASSAULT

Nellisville, Wis., Stirred Up Over Alleged Cruelty to an Orphan Girl. Named Marian Prieur.

Nellisville, Wis., Oct. 5.—Father Yungblud and Lizzie Nolan were arrested yesterday, charged with assaulting an 11-year-old orphan girl Marian Prieur, with intent to do great bodily harm. Father Yungblud is the Catholic priest here and Lizzie Nolan is his housekeeper.

The little girl, Marian Prieur, has been living in the priest's household for nearly a year. She escaped to a neighbor's house yesterday morning and her body and limbs were found to be bruised and lacerated. She claims that the priest and the housekeeper bound her arms and pounded her because she did not learn her lessons in the catechism well. Her arms and hands were black and swollen as if from having been bound. The whole community including the priest's own congregation, is indignant. The examination will be adjourned until the girl recovers sufficiently to testify. Both the priest and the housekeeper deny that they treated the child cruelly.

IRON BRIGADE WILL MEET NEXT YEAR

President Edward S. Bragg Issues a Circular Giving Reasons Why Meeting Is Postponed.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Oct. 5.—President Edward S. Bragg of the Iron Brigade association has issued the following circular:

"The death of our secretary, and my own sickness and absence from home prevented the fixing a day for the annual meeting of our association until after the assassination of our president cast a gloom over the country and determined me that it was unwise at so late a period to call a meeting of the association for the present year. It is a source of regret to me that such untoward events prevented our reunion, as may of us be called away before the next year's meeting; but I am determined, in view of all circumstances, to postpone the meeting of the association until some time during the next summer, which will be designated in ample time for the attendance of all that are living, when I hope again to meet you and renew our pleasant association, under favorable circumstances that will make it pleasing to you all. I hereby appoint, at interim, Lieutenant Jerome B. Johnson, Milwaukee, as acting secretary, in place of Colonel Smith, deceased."

ORTHODOXY IS DEALT A BLOW

Bishops at Episcopal Convention in Favor of Marginal Readings.

SOME NEW CANONS

The Majority of Higher House is Opposed to High Church Policy.

INTEREST IN SESSION

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 5.—Orthodoxy and high church advocates received a severe blow at the Episcopal triennial convention. The house of bishops by a vote of 47 to 21 decided to accept the report of the committee appointed at the last convention to report on the marginal readings that may be substituted for the present readings of the scripture. With the concurrence of the house of deputies the action of the bishops will become a canon of the church of America. From the attitude of the bishops on this matter it is supposed that a majority of the higher house are inclined to be liberal and less orthodox as opposed to the desires of both clergy and laity who urge high church forms and observances and the change of the name from Protestant Episcopal church to the Catholic Church of America. The resolution in full reads: "Resolved, the house of deputies concurring, that the marginal readings for the English version of the old and new testament, reported to this house by the joint commission appointed in 1888 to make such report, be published under the direction of said commission and are hereby allowed to be used by ministers of this church in reading the lessons from the holy scriptures in morning and evening prayer."

The day's deliberations of the triennial convention of the Episcopal church of America were mainly devoted to the missionary field. Neither the house of bishops nor the house of deputies remained in separate session long. A resolution was adopted to adjourn sine die on Thursday, Oct. 17, at 8 p. m. Petitions from representative cities anxious to secure the next triennial meeting were presented in behalf of Pittsburg, Boston, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans. No action was taken, but on motion of J. Pierpont Morgan a committee was appointed to decide where the next convention should be held. The house of bishops decided to take up the consideration of the constitution as soon as it is acted upon by the house of bishops. The proposed canon on marriage and divorce will be considered next week.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW IS AGAIN TO MARRY

Miss May Palmer of New York, Will Become the Second Wife of the Senator.

New York, Oct. 5.—United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew is to be married soon. The lady who is to become his second wife is Miss May Palmer of New York, who is related to some of the most prominent members of this city's high social set. The information, which came as a great surprise to all the senator's intimates, was conveyed in a brief cable message last night from Paris. Senator Depew, who is at Morris-town, N. J., was asked whether the story was true. He admitted it, and gave all the necessary details as to the interesting event, save the date, which he could not be induced to mention.

Miss Palmer is well known in society circles both here and abroad and is popular and wealthy.

A FALL RIVER STRIKE COMING

Cotton Mill Employees Numbering 27,000 Expected to Walk Out—Final Action Taken.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 5.—Final steps in what will unquestionably prove the greatest strike in the history of Fall River were taken last night when the carders, loom fixers, weavers and slasher tenders unanimously voted to strike as a protest to the refusal of the manufacturers to accede to the wage increase which they had demanded. The spinners will meet this afternoon and will vote likewise to strike. This affects 27,000 operatives.

Hay to Attend Yale Delegation

won. It was not until the Regatta committee came aboard inside the Hook to wish Sir Thomas luck that the correctness of the figures was learned. When it became known, positively that Shamrock had lost all eyes turned on Sir Thomas, who was leaning over the bridge. The man who had made two such gallant efforts to lift the cup appeared lost in thought for a moment. In another instant he looked down at his guests and said: "The better boat won, and that's all there is to it. We'll give it a good cheer as we pass." Three cheers were given by Erin's passengers for Sir Thomas, and it seemed as if his voice broke a little, but, plucky as ever, he lifted his cap and replied: "I thank you."

"The result is distressing to me," said the Irish sportsman later, "I would dearly have loved to have one race as a consolation, but I have been on the wrong side right throughout. It is hard to come across the water and then in the last race to be beaten by such a small fraction of time over what one might say is forty miles of water."

"Will you try again?"
"That's a matter for future consideration. I have just been under a great strain and am glad to have it over one way or the other. My disappointment at not winning is not as great as my joy would have been had I won."

"The victory of Columbia was fair, square and honest. I feel in my heart that if any error in judgment had been made by the New York Yacht club folks it would have been in my favor."

THE SHAMROCK.

They have given every chance to my boat. Some time I may have the best boat, but to win with the best boat requires a wee bit of luck."

Just Between Ourselves

This is exclusively for the young girls who have arrived at or are still lingering in that rosy-hued time of life when the pretty heads are filled with thoughts in which pronouns of the masculine gender abound. It is intended as a warning to them alone and all others are hereby notified to turn over the page and give their attention to state politics or some other horrid old thing in which men of brains are supposed to be interested. Now, if you will permit my last summer's straw hat against a set of furs, that every man who ever utters to read these confidential chats has his eyes glued on these lines and wouldn't abandon reading on to the bitter end if the hangman's noose were suspended over his head. Let no man talk of the curiosity of women to me. The fair sex aren't in it with their brothers. But that is neither here nor there. This is a good story and the boys will appreciate it as well as the girls. The best way to get them to read it is to tell them not to, and there you are.

Now for the story. Honestly and candidly, what do you think of a young man who is so vigorous in his demonstrations of affection that the young lady is forced to consult a physician and have her ribs unlapped? This is no jolly. It is in serious earnest, and if you don't believe it, you can ask the girl herself. Many of you know her personally, and while she outwardly laughs at the affair, she has an inward conviction that it is no joke. Nearly three months ago a gentleman friend of hers, in the exuberance of his regard for her, grabbed her and hugged her until the proverbial bear was put completely in the shade.

You can search the world over and you will not find many girls who enjoy a lackadaisical, lifeless embrace, but it is safe to say that there is at least one of the fair sex who would prefer it to a hug, from the effects of which she has not yet recovered, although nearly three months old.

Woman will bear much at the hands of man, especially if his actions can be construed as an evidence of affection, but there is a limit. After this record breaking hug the young lady suffered with a sore side for several days, but her side got worse instead of better and finally she felt compelled to consult a physician. So she went to a local medical authority and described her feelings, although she kept a discreet silence as to the cause. The medical man was puzzled at the case and finally he asked the fair maiden if anything had happened, such as an accident of any kind, that would account for the peculiar pains. She blushed and grew confused and then the doctor told her that if she could account for it in any way she must tell him the whole story and the exact truth or he could not help her.

Thus admonished and being really worried by her sufferings she told the doctor that she and two of her lady friends were standing together talking, when a young man whom they all knew tried to gather all three in his arms. The other two escaped and she received the hug that was meant for the three of them. In its undivided force it was too much for her. With this new light on the subject the physician made a careful examination of his patient and found that her ribs were lapped over each other.

So far as is known the physician has kept inviolate the confidence reposed in him by professional honor, but the young lady victim found the story too good to keep. She told a few of her friends confidentially and of course you understand the method by which I am able to pass it on to you. It wouldn't be right to give a hint as to the young man's identity for there is no telling what effect it might have.

He might be avoided as though he were afflicted and then again he might not be able to find time to accept all the invitations showered on him. It would seem, however, if there are many like him, there might be a profitable market for a steel corset. At least it might be a good thing for the young lady to send him the doctor's bill.

A little fourth ward urchin who is still so young that he finds frequent reason for indignation at being called a baby, furnishes considerable amusement for his fond relatives by his quaint sayings. During the past summer his mother has often taken him with her into a pharmacy to enjoy a cooling drink and the custom of drinking through a straw is a never failing source of delight to him. A short time ago he accompanied his mother and some of her friends into a drug store to get a drink. It was before the warm weather had departed and the store was full of people with a fondness for phosphates and ice cream sodas. The little fellow rose to the dignity of manhood when he was allowed to give the orders for the party and then he turned to his mother and his shrill little voice penetrated to every corner of the room, as he looked first at the straws and then said, "Oh, mamma, are you going to smoke yours, too?"

The little fellow doesn't have the monopoly of all the cute sayings in the family, however, and his older sister surprises her relatives with her original thoughts quite often. On the day after President McKinley died, she went to her mother and said earnestly, "Why, mamma, who'll run the world now?" Her mother said, "Mr. McKinley didn't run the world, darling. God does that, and he isn't dead." The child looked surprised and very much as if an idol had fallen. Then she said, "Well, but Mr. McKinley helped God lots, didn't he?"

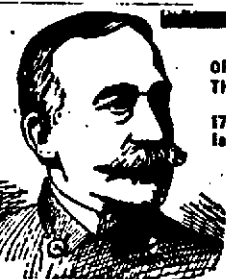

Another little tot in explaining to her mother how she happened to tip her cup of chocolate over onto the table cloth at a children's party, said "Why mamma, it was the funniest thing. I was just laughing at the little boy across the table because he spit his and do you know, the very first thing I knew, I overcame mine."

There is another story which some people might consider sacrilegious, but the little four-year-old had no such intention. His father has an old telescope, not a thing to pack clothes in when you are going to see your country relatives, but a sky gazing apparatus which students of astronomy use to see stars with. Not long ago the mother of this youthful hopeful noticed him looking through this telescope at the sky. He was so earnest about it, was busy so long about it and there was something so peculiar in his manner that she finally asked him what he was doing. "Hush, mamma," he cried in an awed voice, "I'm trying to take a photograph of Jesus." L. F. B.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

A wise saw, "When in Rome," and so forth, might well be travestied into "When in town don't fall to see The Girl From Paris," for this admirable mirth-provoker has set two continents on edge with its merry laughter, for its bright, cheerful fancy, funniness with its complements of pretty girls has lost none of its charms by its long run of 1,000 nights in London and 308 nights at the Herald Square Theater in New York. As a bit of fun as a vehicle for imitable cross-cross witticisms, as a means of presenting clever, catching songs it is a complete success. It will be seen at the Myers Grand tonight.

It Happened in a Drug Store

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist at Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by the Peoples' Drug Co. and Smith's Pharmacy.

THE STAR GRAND CONCERT COMPANY

The sixteenth season of the Peoples' Lecture course opened most brilliantly at the Congregational church, last evening, with a concert by the Star Grand concert company. There was a magnificent audience which filled the auditorium and the gallery of the church and the concert, which was high-class in every respect, received the seal of popular approval. So delightful an entertainment was considered an auspicious opening for the lecture course.

The Star Grand concert company is composed of six artists and special interest was taken in Miss Estelle Rose, who is known to her personal friends as Miss Rosenblatt, of Beloit, and in Myron E. Barnes, whose home is in Rockford. Both singers have been heard here, being introduced to the musical circles of Janesville by Mrs. J. F. Sweeney and both were cordially received last evening. Miss Rose's singing is especially delightful for its excellent enunciation and the sympathetic quality of her rich contralto voice. She sang a triple solo number very prettily. Mr. Barnes' tenor voice was also heard to excellent advantage in the three gems of song which he gave as his solo number and in the quartet work.

The other vocalists were Miss Electa Clifford, soprano, and Sidney Bidden, baritone. Miss Clifford has a very brilliant voice which is under perfect control and she does wonders with it. For her solo number she sang a grand aria from Pilemon and Baucis by Gounod and in all its intricacies her voice was adequate and delightful. She was compelled to respond to an encore. Her duet with Mr. Bidden was also exquisite.

Mr. Bidden has a magnificent baritone voice in which the audience found special pleasure. His songs were well chosen to show his powers and his singing was followed by long continued applause. In the favor of the audience he evidently came next to Leon Marx, the violinist, who was the prime favorite. Mr. Marx is an artist and his mastery over the violin is marvelous. The great audience of last evening listened to his playing with breathless interest and those who understood the technical brilliancy of his playing together with those who only heard the resultant music joined in a great admiration of his work. The silence which prevailed during his playing turned a thunder of applause when he finished and he was compelled to respond to several encores.

Miss Katherine Hoffman proved herself a faultless accompanist and many recognized that much success of the concert was due to her excellent playing. She is as true an artist as any of the company.

The evening's program opened and closed delightfully with selections by the quartet, the final number being the song cycle "Captivity Memories" by Nevin.

When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at People's drug store and King's pharmacy.

SPECIAL MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

Amended Ordinance Recently Passed Relative to the Issue of $65,000 City Hall Bonds.

A special meeting of the common council was called last evening by Mayor Richardson for the purpose of amending the ordinance recently passed in relation to the issuing and the sale of the $65,000 city bonds and the annual tax levy to pay for the same. The ordinance as passed by the council follows the statute provisions in relation to the issuing of such bonds, and City Attorney Burpee is confident that the ordinance was all right.

The attorney for the Rock County National bank, which was to take the balance of the issue not subscribed for by private parties raised the point that the ordinance did not state that there was a specific tax levy to take care of these bonds when they became due. The order to rectify the matter the city attorney prepared an amendment to the ordinance which was given its first and second reading and laid over to the next meeting of the council, October 14. A new ordinance covering the objections was also presented and action deferred until October 14th.

The objections raised by the attorney for the bank blocked their sale until after the council meeting on October 14.

The point was also raised by the attorney for the bank that his council did not have the right to pass any ordinance binding a future council. In order to get around this objection the words "hereby is" were inserted in order to fix the levy, until the bonds are all paid, and not leave it to each future council to fix it annually.

The money from the sale of the bonds not being available until after the question of the legality of the issue was settled, the mayor was instructed to borrow $6,000 and place the same to the credit of the general fund. The clerk was instructed to draw an order on the city treasurer in favor of James Rawson & Son as part payment on their contract, as set forth by a voucher issued by the city hall architect.

The city clerk was instructed to draw an order on the city treasurer for $2,073.15 payable from the bridge fund to take up the city note No. 41.

Aldermen Finfield, Valentine, Hemming, Hutchinson, Kothman, McLean and Murray were present and took part in the proceedings.

Catarrh

The cause exists in the blood, in what causes inflammation of the mucous membrane.

It is therefore impossible to cure the disease by local applications.

It is positively dangerous to neglect it, because it always affects the stomach and deranges the general health, and is likely to develop into consumption.

Many have been radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood and has a peculiar alterative and tonic effect. H. Long, California Junction, Iowa, writes: "I had catarrh three years, lost my appetite and could not sleep. My head pained me and I felt bad all over. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and now have a good appetite, sleep well, and have no symptoms of catarrh."

Our New Showings Winter Garments

ARE ATTRACTING WELL MERITED ATTENTION

For 30 days we have been showing the proper new things in automobile cloaks and jackets. The half fitted backs seem to strike the popular fancy. The castor and light tan shades are much favored, although oxfords and all black are receiving their share of attention. Red and brown meet with fair request, especially red for misses.

Three Quarter Lengths

are just now having the call. Thus far we have sold about 50 garments, enough to show the trend of the trade toward particular style. At $10, $12, $16 we are showing garments that hold their own in the face of the strongest competition.

Nobby Jackets

in red Kersey, oxford and black chevots, stitched and trimmed. Exceptional values at 10, 12, $16.

Capes in long....

lengths are in strong demand; reds and tans are very stylish for evening wear. Large line of blacks. Have capes in plain fur trimmed, fur lined, &c. Our variety is great. Great plush capes for the money, short and long, plain or trimmed.

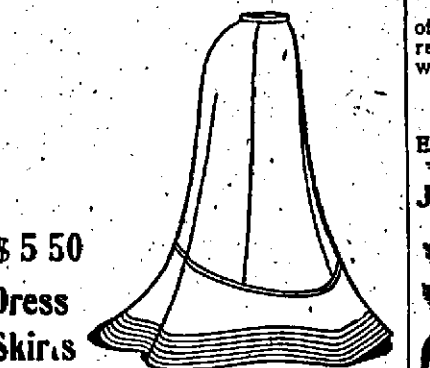

Full length garments being more extreme, will probably not have as general a sale as other styles, but no doubt quite a number will be worn. We show them.

Don't Get Married

That is, do not feel that you have got to get married to a certain length garment whether it is becoming to you or not. Every woman cannot wear the same style. We aim to carry variety large enough so that it will be no trouble to find a suitable garment here.

Walking Skirts

Rack after rack of them. Look our stock over, then look around a little, you'll notice who leads.

Black, plain and, pebbled chevots, all sizes, all lengths, nicely trimmed with black satin bands, some with double graduated flounce; cannot be matched elsewhere.

Here can be found the most complete stock of skirts outside of the large cities. Also have walking skirts in all sizes for miss's, in gray and brown meltons, lengths 30, 31, 32, 33 and 34 inches, stitched bottoms, patent-lace placket, beautifully made at $5.50 and $4.50.

Kodol

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

Many digestive compounds and tablets are recommended to cure dyspepsia by digesting food with the pepsin they contain. Most of these possess merit, but they all fail in many cases, because pepsin digests only albuminous foods, such as eggs and meat. But we must eat more than eggs and meat; and some of the worst cases of dyspepsia are caused by indigestion of fats and starches and other foods which pepsin cannot digest.

There is one preparation that contains all the digestants. It is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which digests what you eat, and has been used with remarkable success,—not a single failure to cure being reported from the many thousands who have used it.

J. E. Peabody, Pittsford, N. Y., says: "The first dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure relieved my son of stomach and heart trouble, and four bottles of it cured him. I heartily recommend it."

University Chief Very Ill.
Madison, Wis., Oct. 5.—President Charles Kendall Adams of the University of Wisconsin has been confined to his room for the past week. His private secretary, William D. Helstead, says the illness of the president is nothing more serious than a severe cold which was contracted a week ago on the occasion of the president's annual address at the opening of the university, but it is rumored in student circles that it was necessary to administer morphine at least once during the past two days to allow the distinguished scholar to get sleep. Dr. George Keenan, President Adams' physician, said in an interview, that the patient was suffering from acute fatigue. He was unable to state when he would be able to return to his office at the university.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

GAVE WEDDING RING FOR HOME MISSIONS

An Unexpected Contribution to the Fund Made by a Woman in Milwaukee Yesterday.

An unexpected contribution to the fund for Wisconsin Home Missions, based on a sentimental dislike to deprive an unknown woman of her engagement ring, was a feature of the day's proceedings of the Wisconsin Congregational convention at Milwaukee Thursday. At the afternoon meeting last Friday when the Rev. H. W. Carter, secretary of the board, rose to make his report, he wore a woman's diamond ring, and just after the figures showing a $3,000 deficit for the year he told the story of the ring.

"It is an engagement ring," said Mr. Carter, "given to me by a Christian woman who desired to aid in the home missionary work. She asked me to sell the ring and use the money for home missionary purposes. I have been to a jeweler and have been assured that $15 was a very low price for it. I will offer it to anyone who will offer the largest sum in excess of $15."

The Rev. J. N. Davidson of Dousman, said it would be a pity to deprive her of her ring, considering the noble spirit of self sacrifice that prompted the gift. He proposed a collection, offering to be one of twenty-five contributors of $1, on condition that Secretary Carter yielded the ring. The collection yielded $40.38. The engagement ring will be returned to the donor, accompanied by a check from a wealthy delegate.

There was a romance about the ring and the circumstances surrounding the gift. The engagement which it solemnized did not have the approval of the woman's father, who threatened to disinherit her if she persisted in it. She married the man of her choice in disregard of the parental authority, and her father cut her off in his will. She gave the ring, Secretary Carter said, with the consent of her husband.

Women Oppose the Kaiser.
Berlin, Oct. 5.—Germany's organized women, assembled in annual congress, have openly revolted against the Kaiser's policy. They are forcing their way through the thronged streets in the neighborhood of their meeting hall, calling the bluecoats "women fighters" and "tyrants" and defying them to do their worst. Only threats on the part of the officials to accept this challenge have succeeded in calming the women's feelings.

Witnesses Tell Committee of Steps Toward Organizing Company.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Frank M. Atterholt of Akron, O., was the first witness called for the day by the senate military affairs committee in the investigation of charges against Lieut.-Col. Helstead. Mr. Atterholt had arranged a meeting with Clint, Eddie & Co. of New York to be attended by Helstead, Hawkes and himself. Helstead, however, did not attend the meeting and subsequently appeared entirely indifferent as to the whole matter. He said he did not have another meeting with the interested parties. Major Hawkes endeavored to show that there had been two meetings, but Mr. Atterholt said positively only one had been held. General W. W. Dudley, one of the promoters of the proposed company, and an attorney in the settlement made with Hawkes, described the preliminary steps taken in the organization of the company. He said that Helstead had mentioned the names of General Corbin, Assistant Secretary Melklejohn and Assistant Secretary Allen as friends of his who would also go into the company. The stock, he said, was to be apportioned as heretofore explained by other witnesses.

Check the Anarchist Mail.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—On reconsideration of the rules of the department the local post office authorities decided that Abraham Isaak's paper, Free Society, should be denied temporarily the privileges of second-class rates in the mails. A Miraculous Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan. Announcement of His Engagement to Mrs. Frances Redington of Troy,
Pa., Surprised This Town.

The many friends of Pliny Norcross will be surprised to learn of his approaching marriage to Mrs. Frances Redington, of Troy, Pa. The news of the engagement first reached this city in the columns of a Troy paper and was a complete surprise to some of Mr. Norcross' most intimate friends.

Mrs. Redington is no stranger to Janesville people, having grown to womanhood in this city. Her maiden name was Frances Spaulding and she is a cousin of Mrs. Anna M. Hanchett and of Ed. Spaulding of this city. She moved away from this city many years ago but has visited here, her last visit being made within the past three years. She is a bright accomplished woman and will receive a warm welcome back to her childhood's home. Mr. Norcross will receive the hearty congratulations of his host of friends.

The announcement of the engagement has been made by the bride-elect. Concerning it the Troy, Pa., Register says:

"Mrs. Frances Redington entertained a company of ladies last Friday evening. The event of the occasion was the announcement of Mrs. Redington's engagement to Mr. Pliny Norcross of Janesville, Wis., made by one of the guests in a most facetious manner. Mrs. Redington will reside in Janesville, the place made memorable as the childhood home of the late Frances E. Willard, the beauties and charms of which have been immortalized by her gifted pen in her 'Glimpses of Fifty Years,' and other publications.

MADE A TRIP FROM BELOIT

Mrs. H. A. Day Pays a Visit to the Bower City

Five years ago Mrs. H. A. Day, a former resident of this city who now makes her home in Beloit, was fitted with glasses by W. F. Hayes, the eye specialist with F. C. Cook & Co. That Mrs. Day found relief and was well satisfied is quite evident from the fact that this week she again visited Mr. Hayes to again have her eyes tested and glasses fitted. Five years' time makes quite a change in one's eyes. Mrs. Day made the trip to the Bower City for no other purpose than to consult Mr. Hayes. She found relief and left for home much pleased. Mrs. Day has a host of friends not only in Beloit and Janesville but in all portions of Rock county. During the past week numerous Rock county residents have made special trips here to consult Mr. Hayes which is in itself convincing proof that his service as an eye specialist are much appreciated.

Entertains Boys' Brotherhood

The members of the Boys' Brotherhood of the Baptist church were the guests of Miss Clara Shurtleff at her South Main street home last evening and the session was a most enjoyable one. The first part of the evening was devoted to the annual business meeting of the society which resulted in the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: Frank Nelson, president; Victor Anderson, vice president; George Scarcell, secretary. Plans were also made for the annual banquet which is to be held in the church parlors on Friday evening, November 1 at six o'clock.

The Boys' Brotherhood is an organization of the young boys under seventeen years of age who are members of the Baptist church. While the organization is largely social in its purpose, some pleasant and instructive feature is always introduced at their meetings. Last evening the boys enjoyed an unusual treat in listening to a very entertaining talk by Mrs. B. F. Dunwiddie, who took as her subject, "What I Saw in London."

Mrs. Dunwiddie described many of the interesting things which she saw in the English capital, selecting those things which would naturally be most attractive to her hearers. Fine photographs of the places which she described added to the interest of her talk.

During the evening Miss Shurtleff served delicious refreshments and the ice cream tasted much better to the young boys because it had been shaped in individual molds for them. Dainty cakes were served with the cream.

Harvest Home Church Festival

Tomorrow will be a joyous day with the people of Trinity church. At the morning service the Harvest Home Festival, which is the celebration of the annual thanksgiving day of the church, will be held with special services. Instead of the evening service a choir festival will be given at 5 o'clock by the combined choirs of Trinity church and of St. John's church at Evansville. The visiting choir accompanied by their rector, Rev. Clark Wilson, will come down from Evansville in the afternoon. After the service they will be entertained at supper in the guild hall by the members of the Trinity choir. The united chorus will be fifty voices strong.

IN THE NATURE OF A CAMPFIRE

An Enjoyable Gathering at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott
Last Evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott was the scene of a most enjoyable gathering which was somewhat of the nature of a genuine campfire last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Scott are entertaining Charles Watson, of Greenville, Ill., but formerly a resident of this city. Mr. Scott and Mr. Watson were comrades in arms together during the civil war and marched shoulder to shoulder in the ranks of Co. F, 35th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry. The friendships formed in the days of common hardships and peril have grown stronger with the passing years and last evening, in honor of his guest, Mr. Scott invited the members of his company who reside in or near this city, together with their wives, to spend the evening at his home.

It was a delightful reunion of old comrades and while it was one of those occasions in a lifetime which are never to be forgotten. An elegant supper, not much like the fare of the camp, was served and heartily enjoyed by the little company. With the first greetings both the hosts and guests became reminiscent and during the entire evening the company lived the days long gone by over again. War stories and memories of old comrades followed each other in quick succession and as both relating and listening to army yarns is a pleasure above all others to the old soldier the hours sped all too swiftly for those who were privileged to attend last evening's reunion. The guests were also delightfully entertained with some excellent music by Mr. Scott's daughters.

F. W. Coon and Henry S. Sloan of Edgerton; C. W. Twining of Monroe; John C. Murock of Brodhead; and H. A. Molenpaul of Clinton, the reorganization board of the Badger Telephone company, were in session today at the Myers.

MISS VIRGINIA GRANES

Graduate Nurse, and President of Nurses' Association of Watertown, N.Y.,

Tells How Much Doctors Use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Has Yet To Hear of Its Failure To Cure.

It is not infrequent that information comes to our attention proving that the medical profession in general prescribe large quantities of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in their private practice.

It is a fact beyond dispute that nowhere is to be found a remedy so universally successful in curing female ills, and the broad-minded physician of to-day is quick to recognize his duty to his patient, and does not hesitate to prescribe the best medicine he can find,—the medicine that is safest and quickest to bring relief to his patient; for this very reason thousands of the very best physicians are prescribing in their treatment of female ills Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, while not in the original bottles perhaps, but in plain prescription bottles with their own or druggists' names.

It is our pleasure and our privilege to publish a letter from a graduate nurse whose reputation and prominence in her profession lends much weight to her opinions, and whose testimony goes to prove our statements in regard to the high esteem in which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is held by our leading physicians and trained nurses.

MISS VIRGINIA GRANES.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Twelve years continuous service at the sick beds in some of our prominent hospitals, as well as at private homes, has given me varied experiences with the diseases of women. I have nursed some most distressing cases of inflammation and ulceration of the ovaries and womb. I have known that doctors used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when everything else failed with their patients. I have advised my patients and friends to use it, and have yet to hear of its first failure to cure.

"Four years ago I had falling of the womb from straining in lifting a heavy patient, and knowing of the value of your Compound I began to use it at once, and in six weeks I was well once more, and have had no trouble since. I am most pleased to have had an opportunity to say a few words in praise of your Vegetable Compound, and shall take every occasion to recommend it."—MISS VIRGINIA GRANES, 444 So. Spring St., Los Angeles, Cal. [Present address.]

Be it, therefore, believed by all women who are ill that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they should take. It has stood the test of time, and it has hundreds of thousands of cures to its credit. It should, therefore, be considered unwise to experiment further.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000 which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letter is not genuine, or was published without obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

LAXAKOLA

The Great Tonic Laxative

WATCH the children carefully. Their health, perhaps their lives, depend on keeping their bowels regular. Many parents make a mistake by giving their little children the old-fashioned, violent purgatives which are racking and crippling, and are therefore not only unpleasant, but dangerous.

Laxakola does not gripe nor irritate. It is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative. It is not only a sure laxative, but it contains valuable tonic properties which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, and will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as LAXAKOLA neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. It will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature, and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongue, or any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach it is invaluable. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to LAXAKOLA CO., 122 Nassau Street, New York, or 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Trade supplied by King's Pharmacy and People's Drug Store.
